- (a) the “Applicant” means the bidder submitting an application; and
- (b) “Application” means a bid or submission to be short-listed.

1.2 Corrupt Practices

1.2.1 It is AIDS Information Centre’s policy to require that all staffas well as Applicants and Providers, observe the highest standards of ethics during procurement and the execution of contracts. In pursuit of this policy, AIC

- (a) defines, for the purposes of this provision, the terms set forth below as follows:
 - (i) “corrupt practice” includes the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a staff in the procurement process or in contract execution; and
 - (ii) “fraudulent practice” includes a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of AIC, and includes collusive practices among Providers prior to or after bid submission designed to establish bid prices at artificial, non competitive levels and to deprive the AIC of the benefits of free and open competition;
- (b) will reject a recommendation for award if it determines that the Bidder recommended for award has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for the Contract; and
- (c) will suspend a Provider from engaging in any public procurement proceeding for a stated period of time, if it at any time determines that the Provider has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for, or in executing, a Government contract.

- 1.2.2 In pursuit of the policy, AIC requires representatives of both the Procuring and Disposing Entity and of Providers to adhere to the relevant codes of ethical conduct.
